Phillip Blackmar is an Associate in our Atlanta office where he focuses on defending employers and insurers in Workers' Compensation claims throughout Georgia.

Upon graduating from Columbus State University, Phillip returned to the mountains in Asheville, North Carolina where he previously worked in healthcare and developed a sincere desire to help others achieve their personal goals. It was through prior work experiences that Phillip knew he wanted to pursue a career in the legal profession and broaden his ability to help others by assisting them achieve their business, as well as personal, goals. While attending Mercer University School of Law, Phillip was able to sharpen his skills as an advocate through programs such as Mercer's Legal Writing Certificate and better position himself to serve the needs of future clients.

Outside of the office, Phillip enjoys rock climbing, mountain biking, fly fishing, and photography (having licensed a photo to one of the world's premier outdoor brands).
