Robert John Griggs is an Associate Attorney based in Atlanta, specializing in general liability and personal injury defense. His dedication lies in providing comprehensive and attentive support to clients, ensuring they receive the highest level of care and assistance. His goal is to advocate effectively for each client, addressing their unique needs with thorough and focused attention.

During law school, Robert gained valuable experience through internships with the Georgia Innocence Project and the Pediatric Bioethics Group. At the Innocence Project, he worked on cases involving wrongful convictions, and with the Pediatric Bioethics Group, he navigated complex ethical issues related to modern medical practices and the law as it pertains to children. This background has equipped him with a nuanced understanding of both legal and ethical challenges, enhancing his ability to serve clients with dedication and expertise and ability to navigate sensitive issues.
