About

Jennifer Parrott focuses her practice in civil litigation and represents individuals, corporations, and insurance companies in state and federal courts. Her practice includes an emphasis on general liability and insurance litigation, transportation/trucking law, personal injury, products liability, and commercial litigation. She has extensive experience in managing files, interviewing witnesses, preparing discovery, writing and responding to motions and appeals, and taking depositions.

In 2017, the American Bar Association, Tort Trial & Insurance section, appointed Jennifer to Vice-Chair for both the Cyber Security Data Privacy General Committee and the Commercial Transportation Litigation General Committee and as a member of the Outreach to Young Lawyers Standing Committee. The ABA TIPS Technology section also appointed Jennifer to Vice-Chair for the Self-Insurers and Risk Managers Committee.

Prior to joining Drew, Eckl & Farnham, Jennifer served as law clerk to the Honorable Judge Irma B. Glover in Cobb County State Court and as an Assistant Solicitor in the Fayette County Solicitor's Office. Interestingly, Jennifer formerly raced cars, competing throughout the United States and in the first women only professional road race (Inaugural Women's Global GT 1999). Though she still enjoys fast cars she no longer races, her interests outside the office now consisting of hiking and travel with her family. Additionally, Jennifer also dedicates time to raising funds for cancer research and from 2011-2015, she served on the Board of Trustees for the Ainsley Paige Higgins' Dare to Hope Foundation, an organization dedicated to improving the quality of life of children with rare diseases and complex medical conditions.
